► THE PROGRAMME

Two rounds of paid summer apprenticeship for university students in the area of private wealth management. The summer apprenticeship will last at least a total of sixteen weeks in the summer of 2023 and 2024*.

Through these consecutive summer apprenticeship, university students will gain experience across a range of functions in the private wealth management industry, leading to a potential job offer upon graduation.

The aim of the Programme is to provide university students with “front-to-back” experience in the private wealth management business. Successful applicants will have the opportunity to learn about different investment products, client services, risk management, compliance and internal controls. The experience gained through this programme will provide students a solid foundation for a career in the private wealth management industry.

► WHY WEALTH MANAGEMENT

Rapid economic growth in Mainland China and the rest of Asia over recent decades has created a burgeoning demand from individuals for professional wealth management services such as financial planning and investment portfolio management. Hong Kong is extremely well positioned to capture this business given its status as a regional business and financial services hub.

To promote the role of Hong Kong as a world class wealth and asset management hub by growing a sustainable talent pool for the industry, private wealth management firms in Hong Kong need talented recruits who can be trained up for positions responsible for managing client relationships and offering investment advice, as well as managing the business, ensuring regulatory compliance and controlling risk at the firms providing these services.

► ELIGIBLE TALENTS

Full-time undergraduates, in their first to third year of study, in any disciplines (not only business and finance) of the following universities are eligible to apply:

- City University of Hong Kong
- Hong Kong Baptist University
